WONDERFUL TALENT COMING HERE IN MUSIC CONCERT

Arthur Seymour, Who Has Appeared Here Before, Heads Noted Quartette Of Artists.

CONCERT ON WED.

Clearfield's opportunities for hearing outside artists this winter have been limited, so that the concert which the activities of the Musical Club has secured for next Wednesday evening is doubly welcome. The performance will be at eight-thirty in the High School auditorium. Tickets are seventy-five cents, school children twenty-five cents.

Three of the artists appearing, Miss Evelyn Tyson, piano; Miss Cecelia Bonawitz, violin, Miss Helena Himes Soprano, won the contest in their classes of music at the convention of the State Federation of Musical Clubs in Pittsburgh last spring They are undoubtedly artists who have arrived and can give nothing but a splendid concert.

Mr. Arthur Seymour, baritone soloist at the Bethlehem Presbyterian church and the Synagogue of Podelph Sholom in Philadelphia, has been twice in Clearfield before. He has proved his popularity here and needs no recommendation. He is winner of the Bass solo prize at the twelfth annual Eisteddfod given at the Academy of Music,, Philadelphia January 2, 1922. The Philadelpha Public Ledger says, "He has a voice of remarkable power, whose notes were securely controlled and surely placed."

Miss Tyson, winner of the Philadelph'a Musical Club and Stokowski medals and pupil of Maurit Loefsons is well known in musical circles of many large cities. CAGE CONTEST LAST SATURDAY NIGHT A REAL TUG OF WAR

Saturday evening the most exciting and closely contested game of the season, to date, was played on the local school's floor, when Huntingdon High School by a flash of speed in the final minute of play nosed out Clearfield High 33 to 31. It was a game of thrills from the initial toss-up until the time keeper's final blast stopped the fray. The official audit showed the mainline five two points ahead.

Clearfield Takes Lead

The guarding on the part of both teams was so close during the first quarter that open shots were impossible, and the contest became a little three handed game, with Referee Mitchell, foul shooters Bill Slaughters of C. H. S. and Smith of C. H. S. as the principals. Thru the medium of a race of baskets shot by Smith, C. H. S. forged ahead 10 to 7, but a free toss by Slaughters and "peep" shot from Haven's handy hands tied the score. Smith converted a foul into a point, and Brown, Clearfield's hard working center, received a pass on the run under the basket and flipped a another score changing With C. H. S. leading 13 to 10, Havens, C. H. S. entered a scored the ball through the iron ring from long range the first half ending a few seconds later Score Clearfield 13. Huntingdon 12.

The second half was only a few seconds old when Huntingdon players let loose a regular fusilade of shots from midfloor. The visiting five would work the ball up to the center of the gym and then with out trying to pass the ball through the Red and Black defense, would take a chance shot. This may not be good policy for a team in the long run but it certainly worked well for the mainline passers Satur-

AT JOHNSONBURG

Johnstonburg, Jan. 14.—One child is dead here and another is in a most serious condition in the Ridgway Hospital as the result of an explosion of kerosene oil which Mildred Milquist, age 1, of near Johnsonburg, was pouring on a banked fire in a coal cooking stove in an effort to hasten the flames in order to cook breakfast at 7:30 a. m.

The dead child Bessie Milquist, aged 14, was standing near the stove when her sister poured the oil on the hot coals. The explosion which followed saturated her clothing with the burning liquid. Mildred's clothing also caught fire but the flames were extinguished by an elder brother, Merle, aged 1, who wrapped blankets about her, carried her outdoors and smothered the fire.

Could Not Find Sister

The brother returned to the kitchen and searched for Bessie but could not find her as she had fled in terror to other parts of the house. The valiant youth made repeated trips into the blazing dwelling but the smoke and flames drove him back, not however until he had received painful burns about the face, arms and hands.

Children Led Out

Meanwhile Ruth, an other child, aged 7 years, had opened the front door and led the other children, Arthur, aged 8; Harry, aged 5 and Donald, aged 3, outside and to safety. The younger children were but partly dressed and they were taken to the home of a neighbor, Tobias Simons, where they were given shelter. Harry and Ruth were slightly burned about the body.

Remains Found

The body of the child Bessie, who lost her life, was found charred beyond recognition. Its position in the ruins was such as to show that she had been trapped in the dining room.

The oldest daughter, Mildred, is in a critical condition.

FIREMEN HEAR THE REAL THING IN OLD FASHIONED GOSPEL

The Clearfield Fire Department attended services at Trinity Methodist church last evening. More than one hundred members were in attendance. Eight rows of seats at the front of the spacious auditorium were reserved for the firemen.

The fire laddies had the pleasure of listening to a fine sermon by Rev. Dr. E. A. Pyles, Superintendent of the Williamsport District. The firemen attend church in a body once a year, the date being fixed as the Sunday nearest the birthday of Benamin Franklin, Pennsylvania's original volunteer firemen. Dr. Pyles who took the place of Dr. Cartwright, who was scheduled by the pastor, Rev. Hartman, to preach the sermon on this occasion, apologized to his auditors because he had no special sermon for the firemen, and announced that he proposed to give them a good old fashioned gospel sermon. He was as good as his word and delivered an impressive and thought-compelling discourse taking his text from the eighth verse Tenth chapter of Matthew, "Freely ye have received: freely give."

Dr. Pyles is a particularly pointed speaker and pointed out to his audience the many things God had given the people of this glorious land and only asked for belief in His word and service in His name in return. His illustrations were illuminatingly comprehensive and telling in the extreme and made a distinct and lasting impression on his hearers.

Miss Evelyn Hester was called to her home in Sligo on account of a death in her family.

NIGHT DISTURBERS OF PEACE ROUNDED UP AND PUNISHED

Coterie Of Young Men Who Resisted Arrest And Were Boisterous Escape With Fines.

FOUGHT POLICE

Ten or a dozen pugilistically inclined more or less husky local young men arrived at Jordan's Cafe about 5:00 Sunday morning after a night spent at Philipsburg. What the party got to eat did not seem to set well with them and within a few minutes after their arrival all hands engaged in a sort of "battle royal."

Restaurant attaches sent out a hurry up call for the police and Patrolman Keogh responded. He shoved all hands out into the street where they again started to battle. The principals in this go were Beezie Sansone and Raymond Lutz. When Keogh attempted to arrest the battlers the remainder of the crowd horned in and prevented him from doing so. They tore the officers coat off his back and he was forced to summon Chief Hitt to his aid. When the Chief got on the job the crowd separated and started to run, Keogh arrested three of them while Hitt pursued Pat McGovern, Sol Litz, Eddie Passmore and Sam Cobell down Market street to the alley at Ross & Woods store where the quartet elected to make a stand against the officer. When Hitt caught up to them he told them they were under arrest. With that McGovern cut loose and hit Hitt on the jaw. Hitt hit Pat and then Pat again Hitt hit. Hitt hit Pat, but this time he used his mace, and after several applications it brought the answer.

While clinched and struggling with his prisoners Hitt alleges that the other three men took pot shots at him with their fists, landing on his head and neck. He hung right to his man and landed him in the lock-up together with two or three others of the gang.

By the time he arrived at the hoos gow McGovern was pretty well battered up and Dr. Yeaney was called for the purpose of restoring the prisoner's topography which was somewhat awry and then silence like a poultice spread all over the landscape to heal the blows of sound heretofore existent on the Main thoroughfare this quiet Sabbath morning.

The entire gang were rounded up this morning and after hearing the stories of the policemen and the defendants a fine of $10. with $2.00 costs in each case were assessed against Pat McGovern, Bruce Walters, Loy Litz, Beezie Sansone, Eddie Passmore, Ted Burns and Raymand Lutz. The latter two were also required to pay $12.50 each toward the purchase of a new overcoat for Policeman Keogh. Sam Cabell will get his medicine this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mayor Kittelberger says he has received many complaints since assuming his office regarding the carryings on of a bunch of roysterers young men who prowl about town at all hours of the night, raising the devil generally and greatly disturbing the peace and good order of the town. He says the practise must and will be broken up at once and every person so offending will be arrested and "soaked" and "soaked" hard.

CLEARFIELD TRUST CO. ADDS SURPLUS AND NEW DIRECTOR

At an organization meeting of the Clearfield Trust Company held this morning the sum of $20,000 was added tothe Surplus Account from earnings. The Surplus Fund now amounts to $295,000 and the new addition made to it places the trust company in an enviable position among banks. In addition to the increase in the surplus fund the board elected P. T. Davis to membership on the directorate. Mr. Davis has been at the helm of this institution for many years and to his efforts is ascribed a considerable part of its success.

PHILADELPHIA POLICE HUNT BRUTE WHO SMOTHERED BABE IN SUIT CASE

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 16.—Police here today sought a well-dressed man known to them only as John Barnett, of Springfield, Mass., who on Monday morning left a three-week's old baby boy in a suit case in his room in a hotel here, with adhesive plaster pasted over the child's mouth to prevent any out-cry. The hoted clerk states that the man registered at the hotel, was shown up to his room and later slipped out. The chambermaid the next morning found the child in a suit case. She said there were holes cut in the sides of the suit case to admit air, but the child was blue in the face when she discovered it.

Clearfielders Assist In Every Worthy Cause

IT is the reputation of Clearfield that its people always listen and respond to the appeal of the needy. Through these columns there will be published daily a full explanation of a condition which exists among the little children of a foreign land, a helpless million of mere babies who are victims of Bolshevism.

HERE ARE THE COLD FACTS:-

THE GREATEST FAMINE OF RECENT YEARS

Cause—There is one cause for the famine—drought. Seven years of war and revolution contributed to the economic breakdown of Russia, which indirectly aided the ruin the famine caused by making it impossible to adequately relieve the situation. But war, alone, did not bring famine in Russia, even as it did not bring it to any other European nation. The seed planted last fall would have fed Russia if the crop had not failed. But no rain fell during the growing period. The grain belt of the Volga was burned brown. When 938,000 tons of grain were needed for the use of Samara alone, but 71,000 tons were harvested this year.

Extent—The famine district is 800 miles long and 500 miles wide, a country which would reach from New York to Chicago and south to Alabama. There are 20,000,000 inhabitants in this region.

Conditions of Life—The only food in the whole Volga district is flour made of ground bark and grass stubble, mixed with the pulp of horses' hoofs, and the carcasses of dead, or dying, animals. The peasants search over wide areas to find even the stunted grass. During September melons, including the rinds, provided food. Anna Haines reports the words of a priest in one of the villages. "This month (September) we are eating the melon rinds. In October we will use the grass and hay. In November we will eat what little reserves people have been able to hide away. In December we will begin to die. In March no one will be alive in this village."

Conditions in country and city are the same. As food does not exist on the farms it cannot come to the city. Ninety per cent of all the children in children's homes have died. The homes are continually refilled from the orphans and abandoned children of the country. Garbage wagons are carrying the dead children away from the cities for burial.

Relief Required—An authentic survey has reported that 945,000 tons of grain will be needed to feed the peasants so that they will be strong enough to put in a crop next spring. This is figured on a basis of 11 ounces of grain per person a day. An additional 838,000 tons is needed for seed, if the situation next year is not to be even worse than this. In toto 250 shiploads of grain are required.

If food is provided for the children's homes alone, it will mean that parents will abandon their children to these homes. The authorities, therefore, have begged that all relief work be spread over the district so that the homes will not be broken up. What this means is told by the fact that in the Buzuluk district alone, where the Quakers are now feeding 25,000, there are 400,000 people who need to be fed. which will cost not less than $500,000 a month. There are fifty times this number of people in the zone where actual starvation exists.

-:: You WILL Do Something For These People ::-

Better Than the Reverse.

"Do you like housework, Biddie?" said the mistress to her new and elderly assistant. "Oi'll not lie to ye, mum," answered Biddy. "Oi do not; but ny the two Of prefer housework to the workhouse."—Boston Transcript.

Art.

Art, like the universe, exists for its own sake, and as the universe remains eternally the same, though our conceptions of the universe are subject to incessant change, so must art remain independent of the ephemeral conceptions of art.—Hulme.

Obverse Has Big Margin.

Says the Lincoln Star: "For every wrong that makes a fool out of a man there is another woman who makes a man out of a fool." We'd like to believe the reverse, process but from our observation it works nearly as easy.—Boston Transcript.

Therefore Avoid Mean Actions.

One great trouble in doing a mean action is that you are compelled to associate with yourself afterward. If you could only have nothing to do with a man who was guilty of such meanness, it would be a relief.

YOUR INCOME TAX FORM WILL BE READY FOR YOU WEDNESDAY

Forms 1040A, revised and simplified, for filing individual returns of income of the calendar year 1921 of $5,000 and less will be available Wednesday, January 18th at the office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., and at DuBois, Pa. A copy will be mailed to taxpayers who last year filed a return, but failure to receive the form does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file a return on time—on or before March 15, 1922. The form has been reduced from six to four pages, two of which are devoted to instructions which should be carefully read by the the taxpayers before filling in the blanks. A study of those instructions will greatly lessen difficulties heretofore encountered in correctly making out the returns.

On page 1, under the head of "Income" are spaces for reporting the following items: Salaries, wages, commissions, etc., income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc., rents and royalties, profits (or loss) from business or profession; profit (or loss) from sale of stocks, bonds, etc., and other income. Beneath are spaces for entering deductions, such as interest and taxes, paid during the year; losses by fire, storm, shipwreck or other casualty or by theft, contributions, bad debts, etc.

On page 2 are spaces for entering explanations of the various items; i. e. the total amount of income from business or profession, with description ("grocery", "retail clothing", "drug store", "landry," "doctor", "lawyer", "farmer") from rents, and royalties, sale of property, etc.

Returns are required of every single person and every married person not living with husband or wife whose net income for 1921 was $1,000 or more and of every married person, living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,000 or more. If the combined net income of husband, wife and dependent minor children, equalled or exceeded $5,000, all such income must be reported on a joint return or in separate return of husband and wife. If single and the net income including that of dependent minors, if any, equalled or exceeded $1,000, of if the gross income equalled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed. A minor, however, having a net income of $1,00 or $2,000, according to Martial status or a gross income of $5,000 must file a return. The requirement to file a return of gross income regardless of the amount, of net income, upon which the tax is assessed is a new provision.

Under each of the above conditions a return must be filed even though not tax is due. The exemptions are $1000 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife, $2000 for married persons living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $5000 or less and $2000 for such persons whose net income was more than $5000. The exemptions for dependents "a person under eighteen years of age, of mentalyy or physically defective" has been increased from $200 to $400.

A head of a family—a person who actually supports in one household one or more persons closely related to him (or her) by blood, marriage or adoption, is granted the same exemptions allowed a married person.

The normal tax rates are unchanged, 4 per cent on the first $4000 of net income abobe the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax this year, as last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15.

Heavy penalties are provided by the new revenue act for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time

FOSTER MOTHER OF TWINS HEROICALLY SAVES THEIR LIVES

Osceola, Pa., Jan. 16.—The friends of Mrs. John Slade of this village are sure she is entitled to a Carnegie Medal for rescuing her twin nieces, about a year old from her home when it burned here Thursday noon. The mother of the twins, Mrs. Slade's sister is dead and she has taken them to raise as her own.

Without warning, the house seemed to burst into flames. After trying to fight the fire unsuccessfully, Mrs. Slade grabbed Florence and ran to a place of safety and laid her down. When she returned to the house and opened the door to get Flora, she was met by a blast of flames and smoke that seemed impenetrable. But she ducked under the sheet of flames, grabbed Flora and holding the child under her own clothing, which was burning in many places, made her escape. Flora was only slightly burned, but Mrs. Slade painfully. Both are in the Westfield Hospital and will recover. The house and contents were destroyed.

John Hays Hammond, world famous mining engineer, is authority for the statement that there is $50,000,000 worth of gold in the sea for every inhabitant of the globe, but unfortunately nobody knows how to extract it, and what good is it going to do us.

* * * *

Guess John Hays' story is a little like that of the fellow who says the north pole has moved six inches during the past thousand years. How's he going to prove it to we poor dense fellows.

Figures compiled by Adjutant General J. Leslie Kincaid show that 12,276 New York State soldiers made the supreme sacrifice in the World War.
Previous statistics announced by the War Department placed the number of New York State casualties at 9,516 but these figures applied only to the expeditionary forces.

Physicians of thirty three States and the District of Columbia replying to questionairres sent out by the Journal of the American Medical Association divided almost equally on the question of whether whiskey is a necessary therapeutic agent in their practice.
The vote was in favor of whiskey but by less than a 12 to 11 ratio, while beer was declared unnecessary by approximately a 3 to 1 majority and wine was opposed by about a 2 to 1 ratio. Restrictions in prescribing whiskey were favored by a majority of approximately 13 to 9.
Figures of fourtten States and the District of Columbia have been made public. These show that out of 10,303 questionairres 5,577 declared whiskey was a necessary therapeutic agent and 4,541 stated that they find it of no value. New York physicians were practically 2 to 1 in favor of whiskey.

Through the Bureau of Labor Statistics the United States Department of Labor has completed compilations showing changes in the retail cost of food in sixteen principal cities of the United States.

C.; 52 percent in Chicago and Detroit; 50 percent in Philadelphia; 49 percent in Milwaukee; 48 percent in Dallas; 47 percent in Omaha; 46 percent in Milnneapolis; 40 percent in Indianapolis; 39 percent in Louisville; and 33 percent in Salt Lake City.

The "one" perfect wife has been found. A London lawyer, who recently went to glory, disclosed her identity in his will. Here is what he says about her:—
"I wish to express in my will that I fell in love with my dear wife at first sight. She saved my life and devoted her energy to a life of affection in my behalf. We have never quarreled. I have never said an unkind word to her in my life. Our lives have been spent together with the exception of one night spent at a house of rest at a doctor's request following an operation.
"No words could express the devotion my dear wife showed me. Her love surpasses comprehension. She was describd by a celebrated French actress as "the daintiest, little lady London or Paris has produced."

FARM CALENDAR
Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College

Poultry Breeding—If good hatches are to be obtained early in the spring do not fail to give the breeders plenty of range all winter. The old hens make the best breeders. Pullets as breeders are undesirable.
Plan Garden Now—Every successful garden is well planned. The time for ordering seeds is approaching and a little time spent now in thoughtful planning will be a great saving. The size of the family and market trade should determine the size of the garden. Plan according to your likes and market demands. For family consumption double up on those vegetables you are fond of and discard those not liked.
Know About Milk—No one person knows everything there is to know about any one thing. Even the most successful dairyman can learn a great deal that is new about milk and its products. Winter evenings are ideal for the purpose of studying some of the free correspondence courses offered by the Agricultural School at State College. Farmers planning to expand on dairy lines can learn much from any or all of the following free courses in home study: "Silos and silage" in five lessons; "Principles of Breeding" nine lessons; Milk and its products," seven lessons; "Technology of Milk" seven lessons and "Study of Milk" five lessons.

"Buddy" is going to have a home. This isn't news. That is why it is not on the front page. News is only that which nobody yet knows and the news tha tnewspapers look for is nobody yet knows and the news that newspapers look for is "Buddy" would get a home, for his smiling face and sparkling eyes were an entreaty which could not be forgotten and besides there are so many kind hearted people in Clearfield that no little five year old baby is going to go begging for a home. Now, just one little paragraph and we draw the curtain on "Buddy." He is going into a real home, the homiest kind of a home and with the best of people. That is all we need to know.

The good people of Clearfield will be behind Burgess Kittelberger and his police force to the limit in their expressed intent to put out of business the bootlegging, moonshine-guzzling and hell-raising crowd of young roisterers who roll and lurch about our streets at all hours of the night, disturbing the peace and slumbers of the decent people of the community. There are far too many of this class of young men in Clearfield and it is high time a clean-up has been started.

The disgraceful affair of Sunday morning is only one of many similar occurrences, except that the perpetrators of the outrages, managed to elude the officers and escape prosecution and publicity. It is high time that these night marauders, and that means many more than the principals in Sunday morning's affray, are taken in hand. They have been tolerated entirely too long, and for their own good and the good of the community, Burgess Kittelberger should continue the good work started today, until these gangs of night marauders are made to respect the laws of the borough and the peace and good order of the community.

Music lovers should avail themselves of the opportunity presented next Wednesday night to hear such artists as Seymour and the three who will appear on the same stage with him. And while the music lovers who can afford the small sum asked as admission fee are thinking about this concert, it will not be amiss to remember that there are a large number of music students in Clearfield, among the younger element, who may not get there unless they are remembered by their elders. All who can afford it should take another—someone who will enjoy the treat.

Once more the pouring of kerosene on a stove fire has made business for the undertaker. How many such press notices have to appear before the whole people learn that this foolish act is responsible for a death in this community about once a year. The practice still goes on. If it is done in your home, stop it at once.

There is a mistaken impression abroad that one who does not have an income of $5,000 or more, does not have to file an income tax return. Remember that this is not the case and read carefully all the printed matter that is put before you on the income tax. The income tax law is harmless if you abide by its provisions. It will add to the economical conduct the internal revenue department and save you much peace mind if you file it just as soon as you receive it.

Basketball again takes first place in the minds of the boys and girls, young and old, who are interested in clean athletics. The school league starts out with a very close race and the league windup promises to be very exciting. Never did there seem to be such close rivalry between the teams of Central Pennsylvania towns and at this early date it looks as though they are very evenly matched.

Fashion Knew No Mercy.

In the days when gull wings and aigrets were in demand for women's hats and when the law afforded no protection to the feathered tribes, they were slaughtered by thousands all along the coast. Millinery agents from New York would conduct expeditions, accompanied by expert skinners, to the breeding grounds of the sea fowl and hire local gunmen to do the killing. One woman in a single season brought back 10,000 tern skins from Cobbs Island, Virginia. More than 500,000 tern skins were collected in one year in the sounds of North and South Carolina.

The Usual Conclusion.

"Well, my dear," said the fond parent to his wife, "I haven't learned whether our boy will achieve success in the Marine corps, or not. But one thing I am sure of. If he makes good, it will be because he had such excellent home training, and if he goes wrong, it will be the fault of the service.—The Leatherneck.

As a Matter of Fact.

"You want to have good judgment as well as industry," said Uncle Eben. "De minister dat preaches de longest sermon works de hardest, but he don't git de 'preciation."—Washington Star.

By CLARENCE DUBOSE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Tokyo, (By Mail) George Creel is still going good in Japan.

His Committee on Public Information American propaganda pictures are playing to crowded houses throughout the Empire.

Every important moving picture house in Nippon is getting a whirl at some of the war-time films that were made to show the world what America was doing.

Mihio Kabu, of the Japanese Foreign Office, who was stationed for some time, in an important post in the Japanese Embassy, secured the pictures from government officials in Washington and brought them to Japan.

Kaku, who is indefatiguable in his efforts for the promotion of better understanding of the conditions in America and Japan by the people of each country, is highly pleased with the hit these pictures are making here.

"These pitcures,' he said "are getting out into the remote, rural towns of Japan, into the little places, into what you would call cross-roads burgs. They are also being shown in every great city. Many thousands of Japanese to whom America has been a vague thing, unknown or misunderstood, are getting through these pictures their first concrete visualization of that country—and it is a favorable one."

The pictures some twelve reels depict "Industrial America." They were designed for war-morale stimulation. They are proving to be a fine free and for America here, long after the war has ended.

Kaku is on the trail of another flock of films showing other phases of life and activity in the United States. Through his efforts the Foreign Office will also furnish these understanding between the two countries free to theatres throughout Japan as a means of promoting friendship and tries.

The Rape of the Lock.

Tuckerman of "The Rape of the Lock," by Pope, "and he has told his tale in language the most choice and rhymes the most correct. CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. Daniel Irwin, Mrs. James Maxwell and Miss Dorothy Wolfe took in the show at Clearfield Saturday night.

Boyd Robinson, formerly clerk in the offices of the Crescent Refractories Co., has been made a salesman by the same concern and will cover part of the Central Western section of the county.

Miss Regina Kennedy visited friends and relatives in Clearfield Sunday evening.

As a matter of history all covered bridges in Clearfield county have written their chapter with one exception and that is the old covered bridge, crossing Anderson Creek on River street, this borough. This bridge was built fifty-five years ago by Miller and Widemire and has rendered a wonderful service during these years. The timber in this bridge was hewed and hauled by Ira Shaffer of this town who is still living and though advanced to a ripe age is still as sturdy as the bridge itself. Mr. Shaffer also put in the stone piers of the structure.

The nurses of the Clearfield Hospital made up two sled loads that visited Curwensville Saturday evening.

L. C. Norris, clerk to the County Commissioners at Clearfield, visited his father, Capt. I. B. Norris Sunday.

The house coal business in Curwensville is booming with the "Hoover Bros. Coal Co., who now enploy fourteen miners in their country bank on theSouth Side. They are selling about 1000 bushels per day and have four teams carrying the "black diamonds" to the residents of the borough. The company now has about forty-five acres under lease and are in the business to stay and produce coal at fair prices.

The Highway Engineers have completed their survey of the Olanta Route and left Sunday for Clearfield where they will be stationed temporarily.

NOTICE—The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 7 o'clock in the Legion rooms. As there will be election of officers it is hoped all members will be present.

REVIVAL SPIRIT IS GROWING IN CURWENSVILLE

The first week of the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal church is indicative of great success, and bids fair to be one of the greatest revivals the church has had for many years.

Under the fearless preaching of Dr. John C. Collins, who is a wonderful expositor of the word of God, preaching with the same force and power as did prophets of old,the hearts of his hearers are melted into penitence and a desire to be saved from sin.

On of the most impressive of these sermons was delivered Sunday evening,dealing directly with the covering of sin, as man tries to cover it. Dr. Collins pointed out very clearly that men cannot cover their sins and keep them covered and that God alone can cover and blot out forever the transgressions of men. The result of this wonderful sermon was the filling of the Altar with penitents and a successful meeting in which men and women were actually hungering and thirsting after the Word of God.

He said: "Oh, that man would return to the living God, how long will you halt between two opinions, how long will you try to serve God and the Devil, during this campaign for souls can Jesus count on you to help bear the cross which he has born for you?

Will you play your full part to help him redeem the World for Jesus during these revival meetings."

Old Legend Concerning Fox.

The fox won his reputation for cunning owing to the legend that when a fox is hungry, it lies down in a furrow of the field and covers itself partly with earth as though it had been long dead. Then the ravens and other rapacious birds come to devour it, at which it suddenly leaps up and tears them to pieces."

Safety First in China.

The stop, look and listen signs along the Chinese railroads usually consist of pictures showing the dangers of trespassing on the tracks. Inscriptions sometimes accompany the pictures, but the inscriptions can be read by comparatively few persons; the pictures can be understood by all.

CAGE CONTEST

day evening, as Huntingdon scored four double counters in a like number of minutes. Clearfield was now behind 20 to 14, but tightened up and held Huntingdon stationary at 20 while C. H. S. slowly crept up to even terms and then forged ahead 27 to 21. Havens made another close-up goal as a doble foul was called on C. H. S. It was counted and Slaughter made the two foul tosses tally, which Referee Mitchell granted. The score now stood 27 to 25 in Clearfield's favor.

Hody Johnson, who was substitute for Howe at guard came across with a fifield goal boosting C. H. S. to 29 With only three minutes to play H. H. S. made to long distance connections with their basket, tying the score. Slaughter scored a foul, but Smith made a sensational field goal and the score stood 31 to 30 in Clearfield's favor. Slaughter garnered another point from a free toss. At the next tip-off Martin shot from the side of the court, the ball balancing on the rim of the basket and then dropped outside, where Davis grabbed it and passed it to Slaughter who was standing by the center circle. Slaughter shot from where he stood, the ball swishing through the basket and as the teams were lining up again, the final whistle blew and Huntingdon had won 33 to 31.

It was a hard game to loose but considering how much bigger the H. H. S. team is, the locals did yoeman work in playing their big and rangy opponents so close.

The shining lights for Huntingdon were Slaughters and Stoffer at forwards while Haven played well at center. Duncan and Davis towered head and shoulders above Clearfield's forwards and outweighed the locals by 50 pounds at the least. All of these player will be remembered as the foot ball representatives of Huntingdon. A couple are not eligible to represent a high school under the scholastic ruling but Coach Crane had to play his team against these men or not meet the Huntingdon five.

Smith Stars for Clearfield

Jimmy Smith, th smallest man on C. H. S. team, was the Red and Black's super-performer against the Reformatory town team. Saturday evening Smith was to C. H. S. as Danny McNichol was to Penn in basket ball. Shooting fouls for the first time, he caged 15 out of 18 attempts and registered six field goals for a total of 2 points. This is a wonderful record. Martin was held scoreless by the giant Davis, but played a good passing game, while Brown played a steady game at center ,out jumping his taller opponent two out of three times. Howe and Scott Norris at guard played aggressive games ,the majority of field goals being scored on long shots by the Huntngdon forwards. Hody Johnson, who Coach Crane shoved into the game at Guard in Howe's position, not only mixed into the melee, but scored a basket from a difficult angle. The line-up and summary:

CLEARFIELD		HUNTINGDON
Smith	F	Stoffer
Martin	F	Slaughters W.
Brown	C	Havens
Howe	G.	Duncan
Norris	G	Davis

Baskets: Smith 6, Slaughters 5, Stoffer 4, Havens, 5, Brown 1, Johnson 1. Fouls: Smith 15 out 18. Slaughters 7 out 17. Substitution, Johnson for Howe, Referee Mitchell Timer Rhodes.

Cleaning Paper.

Grease or finger marks on books or papers may be removed by the following process: Make a thick paste by thoroughly grinding up a spoonful of magnesium carbonate with a sufficient quantity of benzol in a cup or mortar, and apply a small quantity of this paste to the finger-marks, rubbing it in lightly with the tip of the finger. The benzol will exaporate in a few moments, when the paper should be brushed with a clean, soft brush. If the first application is not sufficient, repeat the operation. Experiment on a piece of waste paper before working on anyrhing too value

Alexander and the Knot.

Gordius, a peasant, being chosen king of Phrygia, dedicated his wagon to Jupiter and fastened the yoke to a beam with a knot that no one could untie. Alexander the Great was told that whoever undid the knot would reign over the whole East. "Well then," said the conqueror, "it is thus I perform the task." And so saying he cut the knot in twain with his sword. This was in 330 B. C. A Gordian knot means in common use a great difficulty.

Unquestionably True, in Part.

A recent editorial note in a newspaper published in a large New England town made this astonishing statement: "Dante, who is being honored with world-wide observances this year, and who wrote many important works, is chiefly known as the author of 'Paradise Lost.'" The note concludes, however, with this happy sentence: "His books will well repay everyone's study."

Progress job work satisfies everyone.

A MESSAGE FOR WIVES WHOSE HUSBANDS REMAIN YOUNG

Has it ever occurred to you that your husband looks younger than you because he takes things easier?

Like as not he does very little that he can hire done—he doesn't scrub his own office, or sweep, or scour, or wash.

These are aging tasks which cause so many women to grow old before their husbands do, and the most aging of all is the family washing.

Let us relieve you of this burden. Send us your washing this week and see how much younger you feel when Monday night comes. Just phone, and our representative will call.

CAN YOU CONCENTRATE——EASILY?

Or does your mind rove? Perhaps you easily get nervous—fidgety. Inability to concentrate is very often directly traceable to defective vision. Poor vision causes eye strain. Eye strain produces nervousness, headaches, "mental cloudiness." Have your eyes examined. You may not need glasses. Still you may, in which case a pair of Shell-tex Shur-ons will not only give you solid comfort and smart appearance, but as well, they will actually reduce lens breakage to a minimum.

The Denarius.

The word penny occurs a number of times in our English version of the New Testament, especially in the four Gospels: for instance, Matthew 20:2, "And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard." The coin to which the name penny is given, was the denarius, a Roman silver coin in circulation in the time of Our Lord and the Apostles. It was the principal silver coin then in use throughout the Roman Empire. From the parable of the laborers in the vineyard it would seem that a denarius was then the ordinary pay for a day's labor.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED ON CONDITION THAT VERDICT BE REDUCED

Judge Bell handed down an opinion and decree in the case of John A. Allen, and J. A. Allen, Jr. vs. The B. R. & P. Railway Company this morning in which he refuses a new trial on condition that the verdict given the Allens at the trial of the case be cut down from $6,000 to $4,500.

On August 18, 1916 J. A. Allen, Jr. was struck by a B. R. & P. Engine at a grade crossing in DuBois and very seriously injured.

Suit for damages was entered against the railroad company on June 27, 1919, by Messrs. John C. Arnold and Hazzard A. Murray representing the boy and his father.

At the trial of the case a verdict was rendered allowing the father $729.74 for the expense and trouble he was put to by the injuries to his son, while J. A. Allen, Jr. was given $3,000 for his pain and suffering and allowed an additional $3,000 as compensation for his injuries.

Miller & Hartswick, representing the railway company, immediately made application for a new trial. Argument on the motion was heard some time ago. Judge Bell's decree concludes as follows:

"It s ordered that if the plaintiff shall file a remittur reducing the amount of the verdict in favor of J A. Allen, Jr., to $4500 as of the date of the verdict new trial is refused and judgment directed to be entered upon the verdict so reduced. Unless such demurer be filed within thirty days. Rule for new trial is made absolute and new trial granted.

Shooting Stars.

Some pieces of shooting stars (meteors) do fall on the earth and specimens are kept in various museums. But usually when a meteor goes flying through the atmosphere the friction between the two is sufficient to melt it, and nothing but dust reaches the earth.

Sheep Brought to America.

No domesticated sheep were found in America. The big horn or wild Rocky mountain sheep were known to the first settlers, but efforts to domesticate them and cross them with domesticated sheep have proven failures. The early introductions were made by the Spanish discoverers and the English settlers. Columbus brought Spanish sheep to America in 1493. In 1565 Spanish sheep were introduced into Florida and in 1773 into California. In 1609 sheep were introduced into Virginia from England.

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRED. P. HANSEN, 562 Symmonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors — they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

MILTON G. BROWN DIES

Milton G. Brown, a respected resident of this section for about all of his long life, passed away at his home on Pine street at 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning, January 15, 1922, 75 years and 6 months.

The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and was born and raised in this community. He followed farming and lumbering and for several years was located in Centre county.

He resided on a farm in Goshen township for a time but for the past thirty years had resided on Pine street. He was an honest, upright man, possessed of wide general knowledge. He took an active interest in public men and affairs and was particularly well posted on the political history of this nation.

He is survived by his widow, one son and two daughters viz: Edward Brown, of Goshen; Mrs. William McBride, of Clearfield and Mrs. Charles E. Graffius, of Florida. Three brothers and two sisters also survive him. They are E. W., Lewis, and Ezra Brown and Mrs. Alex Watson, of Clearfield and Mrs. A. M. Bloom, of Vandergrift, Pa.

The deceased had been sick for the past month but his strong will kept him up and going when many a person would have taken their bed. Some two weeks ago he was taken with a heavy cold and pneumonia developed. He was an earnest and conscientious member of Trinity Methodist church for many years and his funeral which will be held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon will be conducted by his pastor Rev. W. W. Hartman. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

It Looked Bad.

"Why you call my boy a poor nut?" queried an indignant mother, who confronted the dietitian of a New Jersey charities association the other morning at her office door. And the latter has not yet found a way of convincing Mrs. Caruso that "poor nut" on the face of Angelo's card stands for poor nutrition.—Survey.

There Is Beauty.

Wherever snow falls or water flows or birds fly, wherever day and night meet in twilight, wherever the blue heaven is hung by clouds or sown with stars, wherever are outlets into celestial space, wherever is . . . awe, and love—there is Beauty, plenteous as rain, shed for thee and though thou shouldst walk the world over, thou shalt not be able to find a condition inopportune or ignoble.—Emerson.

ANOTHER IRVONAITE IS FRIGHTENED

An Irvona resident, on reading what J. H. Phillips had to say about his neighbors and the meteor, writes us the following version as the afore said J. H. was affected:

"J. H. came running all out of breath to the Burgess's office and described to me an airplane of peculiar construction and said he believed it to be loaded with wet goods and being afraid our town would be loaded with fiery liquid he advised that a rush order be sent in for anti-aircraft guns to ward off the bootleggers.

How About It?

The man with the longest whiskers is not always the best farmer. It may just hurt him to shave.—Exchange.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

The special services will be continued all this week at Trinity Methodist Church. Dr. Cartwright will preach Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. As many of the congregation as can, possibly do so are requested to come to the church at 7:15 o'clock, for a brief prayer service before the regular service opens.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The body of Miss Marjory Welch of Newberry, Pa., accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Jennie Schemmerhorn Wagner, will arrive in Clearfield via the N. Y. C. on Tuesday at 11:25 A. M. The precession will proceed directly to Hill Crest where interment will be made.
